Competitive analysis

Green Canopy Glamping

Established in 2016, Green Canopy Glamping is a prominent player, mainly recognized for its sustainable practices. With a network spanning three states, they primarily focus on tent-based glamping experiences.

Features

Eco-friendly tent accommodations with solarpowered amenities.

Organic, farm-to-table dining experiences.

Workshops on sustainable living and nature conservation.

Strengths

Strong brand recognition in the sustainable travel niche.

High repeat customer rate due to their unique workshops.

Collaborations with local environmental NGOs, enhancing their credibility.

Weaknesses

Limited variety in accommodation types.

Some customer feedback indicates their locations lack certain basic amenities, such as reliable Wi-Fi.

LuxTree Resorts

LuxTree Resorts has carved its niche in luxury treehouse accommodations. Founded in 2018, their resorts are known for blending modern luxury with the charm of elevated living.

Features

Premium treehouse suites with panoramic views.

On-demand concierge services.

Spa and wellness centers focused on holistic treatments

Strengths

Unique selling proposition with luxurious treehouse experiences.

Partnerships with renowned wellness brands, providing topnotch spa services.

A dedicated mobile app for reservations, in-stay services, and feedback.

Weaknesses

Premium pricing might alienate budget travellers.

Being heavily dependent on technology, occasional technical glitches impact customer experiences.

Nomadic Trails Co.

Nomadic Trails Co. offers a blend of trekking and glamping. In operation since 2017, they cater to adventure seekers, blending wilderness treks with comfortable stays.

Features

Guided trekking expeditions followed by glamping nights.

Emphasis on local experiences, including regional cuisines and cultural nights.

Adventure packages like rock climbing, river rafting, and more.

Strengths

Adventure packages like rock climbing, river rafting, and more.

Strong relationships with local communities, enriching their cultural offerings.

Variety in packages, catering to different adventure levels.

Weaknesses

Seasonal business model, as certain trek routes are inaccessible during off-seasons.

Safety concerns have been raised in a few customer reviews.
